AT the Court at Kenſington, the 16th Day of October, 1751.

PRESENT,

The King's moſt Excellent Majeſty in Council.

WHEREAS Information hath been given to his Majeſty at this Board, That the Journeymen Taylors in and about London, having refuſed to work for the Maſter Taylors on the Terms required by Act of Parliament, the ſaid Maſter Taylors had made Application to the Juſtices of the Peace for the County of Middleſex, at their General Quarter Seſſions held at Hicks's Hall on the 11th of July laſt, to alter the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen, in ſuch Manner as the ſaid Court ſhould think juſt and reaſonable, (they having Power by Law ſo to do;) And that thereupon the Wages of the ſaid Journeymen were ordered to be encreaſed, and both Sides acquieſced therein, and ſeemed to be well ſatisfied therewith; yet that many of the ſaid Journeymen do now again refuſe to work for the Wages thereby ſettled and allowed; and great Numbers of them have entered into a Combination, not only not to work for the ſaid encreaſed Wages, but alſo by Force and Violence deter others who are willing to comply therewith, from working; That they are a numerous Body, and have committed many Riots, Tumults, and Outrages; and ſome of them have ſent Letters to the Maſter Taylors, threatning to murder them and fire their Houſes in caſe they would not comply with their illegal Demands, and have actually aſſaulted, beaten, and abuſed ſome of them, to the great Terror of his Majeſty's faithful and loyal Subjects.—His Majeſty taking the ſame into his Royal Conſideration, and thinking it proper for the Preſervation of the Peace, that an immediate Stop ſhould be put to ſuch unlawful Proceedings and Combinations, doth therefore, with the Advice of his Privy Council, hereby order, require and command all his Majeſty's Juſtices of the Peace, Sheriffs, Under-Sheriffs, and all other Civil Magiſtrates whatſoever, to uſe their utmoſt Endeavours to carry into Execution the Act of Parliament paſſed in the Seventh Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, For the Regulation of the Journeymen Taylors within the Weekly Bills of Mortality; as likewiſe all the ſeveral other Laws that have been heretofore made, and are now in Force againſt unlawful Combinations of Workmen, Riots, and Tumults; and alſo againſt ſending threatning Letters; his Majeſty being reſolved to ſuppreſs all ſuch Practices by a moſt ſtrict and exemplary Puniſhment of the Offenders.—And whereas the ſending threatning Letters without any Name, or with fictitious Names ſubſcribed thereto, demanding Money, or any other valuable Thing, is by an Act of Parliament of the Ninth Year of his late Majeſty King George the Firſt, declared to be Felony without Benefit of Clergy; his Majeſty is therefore pleaſed for the Encouragement of all Perſons to be diligent and induſtrious in their Endeavours to make Diſcovery of any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters to the Maſter Taylors as aforementioned, hereby to promiſe and declare, That there ſhall be paid to any Perſon or Perſons, who ſhall within Twelve Months from this Time, diſcover and apprehend any Perſon or Perſons who knowingly ſent any of the threatning Letters as aforeſaid, ſo as he or they ſhall be convicted thereof, the Sum of Fifty Pounds a Piece for each Perſon ſo convicted: And his Majeſty hath given the neceſſary Orders to the Lords Commiſſioners of his Treaſury, for the Payment of the ſaid Rewards accordingly. And his Majeſty does hereby command the reſpective Juſtices of the Peace, and other Magiſtrates, that they do from Time to Time tranſmit an exact Account of what they ſhall do, purſuant to this his Majeſty's Order, to one of his Majeſty's Principal Secretaries of State.

William Sharpe.

Naples, Oct. 6. The King having nothing more at Heart than effectually to protect the Commerce of his Subjects, and being fully convinced, that the ſureſt Way to accompliſh it, is to put his Naval Force upon a good Footing, has ordered the new Men of War and armed Veſſels that are upon the Stocks, not only in this Port, but in the other Ports of this Kingdom, to be finiſhed as ſoon as poſſible, in order to have a powerful Squadron ready to put to Sea upon all Occaſions. 'Tis ſaid an Ordonnance will be publiſhed here againſt exceſſive Gaming, which is lately carried to a greater Height than ever. An Epidemical Diſtemper which reigned for ſome Months at Meſſina, having carried off a great Number of Artificers, and the Manufactures eſtabliſhed in that City having greatly ſuffered thereby, the King has promiſed, by a late Edict, that all Artificers who ſhall go and ſettle in that City, ſhall not only be exempt from all publick Taxes whatſoever for ten Years, but ſhall likewiſe enjoy ſome other very conſiderable Privileges.

Rome, Oct. 9. On Monday laſt, being the Feaſt of St. Francis, whoſe Name the Emperor bears, Cardinal Alexander Albani, Miniſter Plenipotentiary from their Imperial Majeſties to this Court, received the Compliments of the Nobility

Nobility and Foreign Miniſters on that Occaſion; to whom he afterwards gave an elegant Entertainment.

Petersbourg, Oct. 9. Her Imperial Majeſty is gone to paſs ſome Days at Czarkaſelo. They have began at Court to make Preparations for the Empreſs's Journey to Moſcow, but no one can ſay as yet when it will take Place. The Baron de Greiffenheim, the Swediſh Envoy Extraordinary at this Court, intends giving a ſumptuous Entertainment on the 14th Inſtant, on Occaſion of the Coronation of their Swediſh Majeſties.

Turin, Oct. 10. The King has cauſed an Ordonnance to be publiſhed, expreſsly forbidding the Exportation of Corn out of his Dominions, upon Pain of very ſevere Penalties.

Genoa, Oct. 11. We learn by the Maſter of a Neapolitan Pink juſt arrived in this Port from Baſtia, that ſeveral of the Pieves or Communities are already beginning to form new Pretenſions, ſo that notwithſtanding all the Pains and Care that has been taken by the Marqueſs de Curſay, Commander of the French Troops, and by M. Grimaldi, the Republick's Commiſſary General, in eſtabliſhing the Tranquillity of that Iſland, 'tis thought the ſame will not be very laſting. By our laſt Letters from Nocera we learn, that ſeveral very ſevere Shocks of an Earthquake were felt there, and in that Neighbourhood about the End of laſt Month, which had not only thrown the Inhabitants into the utmoſt Conſternation, but had alſo done conſiderable Damage.

Vienna, Oct. 16. The Aulick Council of the Empire is at preſent employed in adjuſting the Diſputes which have happened in ſome of the Imperial Cities. Thoſe which have ſubſiſted for ſome Time paſt between the Magiſtrates and Citizens of Nurenburg are already in a fair Way of being adjuſted to the reciprocal Satisfaction of both Parties. A few Days ago a new invented Engine, for putting out of Fires, was played off in their Imperial Majeſties Preſence, and gave great Satisfaction; and 'tis thought will be preferred by moſt People to thoſe we uſed before.

Copenhagen, Oct. 18. The two Men of War that have been equipping for ſome Time paſt in this Port, are to put to Sea the Beginning of next Week, in order to ſail for the Coaſt of Tranquebar to protect our Commerce. They have on board three Companies of regular Troops, who are ſent to reinforce the Garriſon of Fort Dannebourg.

Leipſick, Oct. 19. Since the Departure of the Court for Dreſden, moſt of the Foreign Nobility, who came here to ſee the Fair, and to pay their Compliments to their Majeſties, have likewiſe left this City.

Franckfort, Oct. 22. We have received Advice from Heckingen, that the Princeſs of Hohenzollern was a few Days ago happily delivered of a Prince, the Birth of whom had cauſed great Joy to all the Inhabitants of that Principality; and that the young Prince was ſoon after baptized by the Names of Frederic-Louis-Francis-Xavier; the King and Queen of Pruſſia, and the Duke and Dutcheſs of Wirtemberg, ſtanding Godfathers and Godmothers.

Hague, Nov. 2. Laſt Night a Deputation from the States of Frieſland arrived here, to condole with the Princeſs Royal, and to adminiſter to her Royal Highneſs the Oaths as Governante and Guardian to the young Prince Stadtholder her Son; and this Afternoon the ſaid Deputation, conſiſting of eight Perſons, with the Secretary of State of that Province at their Head, ſet out from hence for the Houſe in the Wood, in order to execute their Commiſſion. Yeſterday the Body of the late Stadtholder was removed from the Houſe in the Wood to an Apartment in the Court, where it is to lie in State till it is interred. This Evening died here ſuddenly, Baron Charles Louis de Waſſenaer, greatly regretted.

Whitehall, October 19, 1751.

Whereas it has been humbly repreſented to the King, That the Barns of Thomas Galley, Farmer, at Catlidge, in the County of Cambridge, were, on Friday the Eleventh Inſtant, at Eleven o'Clock at Night, maliciouſly ſet on Fire, by ſome ill-deſigning Perſons; whereby the whole Buildings, with all the Corn, Hay, Utenſils, &c. to the Value of Eight Hundred Pounds Sterling, were totally conſumed: His Majeſty, for the better Diſcovering and bringing to Juſtice, the Perſons concerned in the ſaid wicked Crime, is hereby pleaſed to promiſe His moſt Gracious Pardon to any one of them, (except the Perſon who actually ſet the ſaid Barns on Fire) who ſhall diſcover his, or her, Accomplice, or Accomplices therein, ſo that he, ſhe, or they, may be apprehended and convicted thereof.

HOLLES NEWCASTLE.

LES MOEURS; or, MANNERS. Accurately Tranſlated from the French. Wherein the Principles of Morality, or Social Duties, viz. Piety, Wiſdom, Prudence, Fortitude, Juſtice, Temperance, Love, Friendſhip, Humanity, &c. &c. are deſcribed in all their Branches; the Obligations of them ſhown to conſiſt in our Nature, and the Enlargement of them ſtrongly enforc'd. Here Parents are taught, that, giving Birth to a Child, ſcarcely entitles them to that honourable Name, without a ſtrict Diſcharge of Parental Duties; the Friend will find, there are a Thouſand other Decorums, beſides the doing of a Favour, to entitle him to the tender Name of Friend; and the Good-natur'd Man will find, he ought to extend that Quality beyond the Bounds of his own Neighbourhood or Party.

The Whole wrote in a Manner entirely New and Entertaining, and enliven'd with real Characters, drawn from Life, and fitted to inſtill the Principles of all ſocial Virtues into tender Minds.
